A new method of treating consumptions. Wherein all the decays incident to human bodies, are mechanically accounted for. V. A. has some considerations, touching the difference between consumptions and those decays that naturally attend old age. To which are added, arguments in defence of the possibility of curing ulcers of the lungs; as also reasons demonstrating that the irregular discharges of all the evacuations in consumptions, arise from the resistance of the heart not decaying in a simple proportion to the resistance of the other parts. Updated the position taken by P. Paris in his reply to the report of J. Haude, director of the Bibliothèque royale, in relation to the general cataloging of printed books. Haude refused to accept responsibility for the work of departments of the library (other than the Département des imprimés) because of his alleged lack of authority over them. The present material, by Raoul-Rochette, conveys the "Calendrier des médailles et antiquités" demands that all the work of that department has been under Haude's supervision.

viii, 9-202 p. incl. plates. 19".
"Rudolf Rocke has taken some well-known figures from world literature ... to introduce a beautiful dream of a world rebuilt and mankind not free. The six figures ... are presented in three contrasting pairs (Paul and Don Juan, Hamlet and Don Quixote, Shakespeare and Hitler) as 'Gardens'."—Introductory note.

At head of title: Rocky Mountain petroleum association in cooperation with the U. S. Bureau of mines: F. R. Tapp, engineer in charge.
The investigation here reported upon was financed by an association of several oil companies which operated for two years under the official title of U. S. Bureau of mines (Rocky Mountain petroleum association) with offices in Denver, Colo., and Cheyenne, Wyo.; the association was not incorporated and had no officers. The work was carried on under the direction of the U. S. Bureau of mines.
